

Section B

Que2.Essay / Situation Type (Solve any 2 out of 3)

(2x15=30.00)

a.

A primigravida mother is brought to the maternity unit with one episode of convulsion. On examination her BP is 160/100mmHg and is having edema all over the body.

Define preeclampsia and eclampsia. (3)

Explain the stages of convulsion (5)

Discuss the obstetrical and nursing management of the mother. (7)

b.

List the factors responsible for rising rate of cesarean section (3)

Discuss the preparation of a mother posted for emergency cesarean section (5)

Explain the day wise nursing care of a mother undergone lower segment cesarean section (7)

c.

Define maternal mortality (3)

List and explain the various causes leading to maternal mortality (5)

Describe the strategies to reduce maternal mortality and role of a nurse midwife in it. (7)

Que3.Short Notes (Solve any 5 out of 6)

(5x5=25.00)

a.

Antenatal visits in normal and high-risk pregnancy

b.

Obstetric emergencies and role of nurse midwife

c.

Breastfeeding in HIV

d.

Menstrual cycle

e.

Characteristics and functions of amniotic fluid

f.

Pre conceptional counseling

Que4. Very Short Notes (Solve any 4 Out of 5) :-

(4x2=8.00)

a.

Surrogacy Bill

b.

Roll-over test

c.

Uses of ultrasound in Obstetrics

d.

Skin changes during pregnancy

e.

Importance of Fontanelles